SERMON

I AM THE BREAD OF LIFE

By Revd. Peter Chen

SCRIPTURE VERSE

John 6:22-35

Ephesians 2:4-10

06/02/22

Becoming a Great Commission Church

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matt 28: 18-20, ESV)

Our direction for CHS in 2022 will be toward "Becoming a Great Commission Church" and to enable each believer to be a Great Commission disciple.

The pandemic has changed our worship and community life. Many have become living-room worshippers, drifting into complacency and lukewarmness.

As we enter the third year of the pandemic, it is imperative for us to consider how to stir up one another to love and good work, not neglecting to meet together and urgent to bring the gospel to those in need of Christ. Let us together make special efforts to grow in knowledge and love for God, to live in obedience to His word and be zealous in witnessing.

NEW HERE? WELCOME!

A warm welcome to those who are new to the church. Please introduce yourself to the pastors or ushers and leave us your contact. Let us know if you need us to pray for you or you would like more information on the various ministries and community life.

4th Sunday before Lent

Heavenly Father, Whose blessed Son was revealed that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us the sons of God and heirs of eternal life: grant that we, having this hope, may purify ourselves even as he is pure; that when he shall appear in power and great glory we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

GOD'S HELP & COMFORT IN TIMES OF TROUBLE

Though the fig tree should not blossom, nor fruit be on the vines, the produce of the olive fail and the fields yield no food, the flock be cut off from the fold and there be no herd in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the LORD; I will take joy in the God of my salvation. GOD, the Lord, is my strength; he makes my feet like the deer's; he makes me tread on my high places.

The 7 “I Am” Statements of Jesus

The gospel of John was written primarily to 1st century believers who had forgotten or misunderstood who Jesus is because of false teachings at that time. The apostle John was concerned about their fallacies about Christ and wrote the gospel to remind the early Christians who Christ truly is and what He had come to do in this fallen world.

Unfortunately, the Church today also faces the same problems as the Early Church; many believers either do not know who Jesus is or hold misconceptions about Him. Some think Jesus is just a prophet, a great teacher, a miracle worker. There are also Christians who reject Jesus’ divinity and resurrection, seeing Him as no different from the founders of other religions.

The 7 “I am” statements of Jesus, unique to the gospel of John, give us a glimpse of the character of Jesus and the life-transforming work He had come to do in the lives of those who believe in Him.

Beginning Feb 6th to April 3rd, we will look at each of the self-claims of Jesus, exploring the significance of each truth and the difference it should make in our lives and faith. May I encourage you to read the appointed bible texts and ask the Holy Spirit to reveal God’s truth to you even before the sermons.

Weekly Devotions: THE REFINING FIRE OF TRIALS 13

Give Thanks in All Situations

In life's crisis, it is natural to lapse into depression, hopelessness and anxiety. However, for God's children we can experience His peace and joy even in the darkness. For us to have a cheerful and positive spirit we need to learn to give thanks to God. Someone said, "Thanksgiving is the soil for peace and joy to grow." Our choice is either to stay in the darkroom of worry and be miserable or to have a heart of thanksgiving and experience His peace and joy.

In the last 35 years, fighting 2 types of cancer, the loss of vision and hearing among other health problems, God has taught me how to give thanks in spite of my struggles. God taught me: "In the morning, give thanks that I have given you one more day. In the evening, give praise that I have given you strength for the day."

On another occasion when I was lamenting that God has blessed others with energy and good health while I had to cope with so many physical limitations, He said: "Do not look at what you don't have and can't do. Look at what you have and can still do." Indeed God has blessed me abundantly and by learning to be thankful, I have learned to trust Him and experienced His peace and joy.

Read 1 Thess. 5:16-18; Habakkuk 3: 17-19

Paul said God's children should give thanks in both good and bad times. Paul is not saying we should thank God for suffering and pain but we should trust Him in all situations and praise Him for who He is, for His steadfast love and faithfulness.

Paul believes that we should also trust and thank God because He is at work in all situations for our good. A thankful heart is a trusting heart. Trials are times when we learn to trust God and continue to praise Him, in spite of unanswered prayers or when the problem does not go away. For us to give thanks in all circumstances we must trust that God is in control and at work and He knows exactly what He is doing.

Questions to ponder

1. What did Paul say is God's will for all believers (1 Thess. 5: 16-18)? What will prevent you from doing this particular will of God?
2. What did Habakkuk say he would do (Hab. 3: 17-18) in times of calamity? For what do you give thanks in times of loss, hardship and hopelessness?
3. What did Habakkuk say about God in his difficult time (Hab. 3: 19)? How do you lean on God and what does it mean for you to be 'like a deer treading on high places' in your time of difficulty?
