Becoming a Great Commission Church

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matt 28: 18-20, ESV)

Our direction for CHS in 2022 will be toward "Becoming a Great Commission Church" and to enable each believer to be a Great Commission disciple.

The pandemic has changed our worship and community life. Many have become living-room worshippers, drifting into complacency and lukewarmness.

As we enter the third year of the pandemic, it is imperative for us to consider how to stir up one another to love and good work, not neglecting to meet together and urgent to bring the gospel to those in need of Christ. Let us together make special efforts to grow in knowledge and love for God, to live in obedience to His word and be zealous in witnessing.

The 7 “I Am” Statements of Jesus

The gospel of John was written primarily to 1st century believers who had forgotten or misunderstood who Jesus is because of false teachings at that time. The apostle John was concerned about their fallacies about Christ and wrote the gospel to remind the early Christians who Christ truly is and what He had come to do in this fallen world.

Unfortunately, the Church today also faces the same problems as the Early Church; many believers either do not know who Jesus is or hold misconceptions about Him. Some think Jesus is just a prophet, a great teacher, a miracle worker. There are also Christians who reject Jesus’ divinity and resurrection, seeing Him as no different from the founders of other religions.

The 7 “I am” statements of Jesus, unique to the gospel of John, give us a glimpse of the character of Jesus and the life-transforming work He had come to do in the lives of those who believe in Him.

Beginning Feb 6th to April 3rd, we will look at each of the self-claims of Jesus, exploring the significance of each truth and the difference it should make in our lives and faith. May I encourage you to read the appointed bible texts and ask the Holy Spirit to reveal God’s truth to you even before the sermons.

Weekly Devotions: THE REFINING FIRE OF TRIALS 14

Learn to Live in Victory not Defeat

In life we cannot control or choose what will or will not happen to us. We often cannot change the way things are but we can change the way we look at our problems as well as choose how to respond to them. We can choose either to rise above our struggles or be overwhelmed by our problems. Trials are opportunities for us to learn what it means to live in victory instead of defeat; to be an over-comer instead of being a victim of our circumstances.

Overcoming is an act of the will. An over-comer is one who chooses to live according to God's word and to remain faithful to Him to the end. An over-comer is also one who will praise God in spite of his / her struggles. An over-comer does not forget who God is and chooses to trust Him even if the situation worsens. His / her love and faith in God will persevere regardless of how difficult the situation.

Read Romans 8: 36-39; 2 Cor. 11: 24-30

The early Christians had to face intense persecution for their faith. Paul encouraged them that they were more than conquerors and through Christ they would rise above every difficulty (Romans 8: 37). The reason for Paul's confidence is that nothing can and will separate the children of God from the Father's love.

Our confidence in living victoriously is not because of our love for God but His love for us. God loves us and is with us in our darkness. If He is with us, He will give us the power and strength to live victoriously in spite of the difficulty we face. God's love and power are the reasons we can live like conquerors. We need to look to Him and lean on Him in our difficulty.

Questions to ponder

1. In your experience what is the most difficult thing you had to overcome? What are some of the struggles Paul had to overcome (2 Cor. 11: 24-29)?
2. What do you usually boast about? Why did Paul rather boast about things that show his weaknesses (2 Cor. 11: 30)?
3. How are we to respond to tragedies or problems (Romans 8: 37)? What would prevent you from being confident of God's love & power? What does it mean for you to be an over-comer instead of being a victim of your situation?
4. Why do we lose our faith in times of difficulty? What is the basis of Paul's confidence that he would be victorious in his struggles (Rom 8: 38-39)?
