Becoming a Great Commission Church

Our direction for CHS in 2022 will be toward “Becoming a Great Commission Church” and to enable each believer to be a Great Commission disciple.

SERMON

HOW MUCH DO WE LOVE GOD?

By Revd Lew Kiat Lern

SCRIPTURE VERSES

Psalm 118:19-29

Mark 11:1-10

10/04/2022

“For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.” (John 3:16)

Holy Week 2022, beginning Palm Sunday (10 April), commemorates the triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. Jesus’ heart was set on doing the Father’s will to deliver us from eternal death, even if it means to sacrifice His life on the cross. So amazing and unconditional is our Lord’s love for you and me!

Let us come together on this Good Friday (15 April) to reflect and meditate on three of His last dying words while He was hanging on the cross for our sake.

“Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.” (Luke 23: 34)
“Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in paradise.” (Luke 23: 43)
“It is finished.” (John 19:30)

Collect

Palm Sunday

Almighty and everlasting God, who in your tender love towards the human race sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take upon him our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross: grant that we may follow the example of his patience and humility, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

For Meditation and/or Memory SALVATION IN CHRIST ALONE

For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Weekly Devotions: LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER 2

To Love One Another is a Mandate

Sometimes the most difficult people to love are those in the church; people who professed to love God but behave no different from those without God. Their conduct not only brings dishonor to God's Name, it also stumbles others. However, to love one another is not Jesus' suggestion on how we should relate to others in the church. It is Jesus' command; we either accept and obey or reject and disobey. It is an important mandate which Jesus repeated a number of times in His final teaching (Jn. 13: 34-35; 15: 12, 17). The phrase 'one another' occurs 101 times in the NT and 'to love one another' is mentioned 58 times. It is the code of conduct expected of all believers.

The reason why we love other believers is because we love God and we want to do what He expects of us. It has nothing to do with whether they deserve our love and kindness. Whatever we do for them, we do it out of love and obedience to Christ.

Read John 14: 15-26

Jesus emphasized that keeping His commandments is the expression of their love for Him. To obey His mandate to love one another is not to earn our salvation or reward in heaven but is the natural response of our love for God.

What Jesus expects of us He also enables and He promises that the Holy Spirit who dwells in us will be our parakletos (16) translated 'Helper' (ESV, NASB). His Spirit will be with us and will remind us of what Jesus had taught (26). The Spirit will also sanctify us that we may be like Christ.

Leon Morris said in his 'Reflections on the Gospel of John' that it is significant that Jesus describes the Spirit as the Holy Spirit, instead of calling Him the 'mighty Spirit, or the 'exciting Spirit' or the 'signs and wonder Spirit'. While the Spirit can do many things, His key characteristic is His holiness. As the Holy Spirit, one of the primary influences in our lives is to help us to be holy in our being and doing, and in our relationships, especially with one another.

Questions to ponder

1. Jesus repeated three times in verses 15, 21, 23 the importance of keeping His mandates. What is the reason and what would be the results when we do what Jesus expects? What does our refusal to obey say about us (24)?
2. What did Jesus say about the Holy Spirit and how can the Holy Spirit help us to love fellow believers? Is there someone in your church that you have problem loving and what can you do this week to love this person?

BB Weeks 2022 - 7th Singapore Company

Every year each BB Company has to raise funds for its yearly operation through BB Weeks. As Singapore moves toward endemic, we rejoice as we can resume more of our activities to engage and reach out to the boys. As more activities are allowed, the operation cost increases due to the Safe Management Measures (SMM) and raising cost during the pandemic. Therefore, we would like to ask for your support to help the company through our annual BB Weeks Donation. You can donate via the collection box placed at the main entrance of the Sanctuary or online, <https://bit.ly/7thbb>
