Becoming a Great Commission Church

Our direction for CHS in 2022 will be toward "Becoming a Great Commission Church" and to enable each believer to be a Great Commission disciple.

SERMON

JESUS IS ALIVE! SO WHAT?

By Revd Peter Chen

SCRIPTURE VERSES

Luke 24: 1-12

17/04/2022

Christ is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!

"He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise." (Luke 24:6-7, ESV)

"Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus." (Romans 6:8-11, ESV)

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?" (John 11:25-26, ESV)

Acting Vicar's Message
Resurrection Sunday
17 April 2022

Dear CHS Family,

Christ is Risen! He is Risen indeed. Hallelujah!

The resurrection of our Lord Jesus from the dead 2000 years ago was not just an earth-shaking event. It was the climax of the redemptive plan of God to redeem sinful men and women from eternal death to eternal life.

The sacrificial death of Jesus on the cross is the indisputable evidence of God's unconditional love for undeserving sinners like you and me. His glorious resurrection is the irrefutable proof of His divinity and power to defeat sin and overcome death; giving us the assurance of salvation and eternal hope.

We give thanks to God and are deeply encouraged by what the Holy Spirit is doing in our midst in CHS. We praise God that some of our members have been sharing the gospel of hope and love with their friends in these challenging times. We rejoice that the efforts of these faithful witnesses are not in vain. Some of their pre-believing friends have come to faith and are taking the step of commitment to be baptised.

Together as one CHS family, we rejoice in the Lord to witness the baptism of 6 adults and 4 children today; 2 of the adult candidates will be baptised at our Tamil congregation this afternoon. Let us not only welcome each one of them into the family of God in CHS but to remember them in prayers that they will grow in faith and experiencing the loving presence of our God in their lives. May the Spirit of God teach and empower them to obey everything the Lord Jesus has taught us.

It is my prayer and hope that as we celebrate the Lord's Resurrection this Sunday, each one of us will have a fresh encounter with our Risen Lord and renew our commitment to follow Him. May our personal encounter with the Risen Christ deepen our faith and walk with God, individually and as one CHS family.

May the Holy Spirit stir all of us out of our comfort zone and empower each one of us to reach out to our pre-believing friends and loved ones with the saving grace of our Lord Jesus.

Together we are committed to worship and serve the one true living God, the crucified & resurrected Christ. Amen.

Blessings
Pastor Peter

PRAYER & MEDITATION

Collect

Resurrection Sunday

Lord of all life and power, who through the mighty resurrection of your Son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in him: grant that we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ, may reign with him in glory; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity.

For Meditation and/or Memory

SALVATION IN CHRIST ALONE

“He himself bore our sins” in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; “by his wounds you have been healed.” For “you were like sheep going astray,” but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Weekly Devotions: LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER 3

Why is the Mandate to Love One Another New?

The commandment to love is not new to the disciples. The summary of the Law is to love God with all our heart and to love our neighbor as much as we love ourselves (Matt 22: 37-40). What is new in Jesus' mandate for us to love one another is that we are to love one another 'just as I (Jesus) have loved you' (34). In other words, we are to love fellow believers the way Jesus loves; full of grace, patience, compassion and always forgiving.

The disciples to whom this mandate was first given were not selfless, considerate people but imperfect with a lot of shortcomings. On the way to Jerusalem, the disciples were fighting amongst themselves as to who was the greatest and should be ranked above the rest (Luke 22:24). Before long, when their Master was arrested, they would all respond in cowardly manner.

However, Jesus expects His disciples and those who follow Him to have a high standard of love for one another. We are to love each other in spite of the other's faults and imperfections. Jesus emphasizes that the distinguishing mark of a believer is his / her love for others in the body of Christ.

How we relate to others in the church community will either draw unbelievers to church or drive them away. Dietrich Bonhoeffer, pastor and theologian, who was martyred for his stand against the Nazis, said this of the Church, "What matters in the Church is not religion but the form of Christ, and how Christ is visibly seen amongst its members."

Read John 13: 34-35

Questions to ponder

1. What did Jesus ask His disciples to do? Why (34-35)? How is love a sign that someone is a true believer?
2. Give two examples of Jesus' love for His disciples in the three years they were with Him. Share three instances when you yourself have experienced Jesus' love.
3. What does it mean for you to love fellow believers the way Jesus loves? What can you do for someone in the church who needs to know the love of Jesus at this moment?
