Becoming a Great Commission Church

Our direction for CHS in 2022 will be toward “Becoming a Great Commission Church” and to enable each believer to be a Great Commission disciple.

SERMON

MAKE TIME FOR THE PEOPLE YOU LOVE

Revd. Peter Chen

SCRIPTURE VERSES

Eph 5;15-21

John 13:31-35

015/05/2022

Christ is Risen! He is Risen indeed. Hallelujah!

The resurrection of our Lord Jesus from the dead 2000 years ago was the climax of the redemptive plan of God to redeem sinful men and women from eternal death to eternal life.

The sacrificial death of Jesus on the cross is the indisputable evidence of God’s unconditional love for undeserving sinners like us. His glorious resurrection is the irrefutable proof of His divinity and power to defeat sin and overcome death; giving us the assurance of salvation and eternal hope.

As we celebrate the Lord’s Resurrection in this season, may we experience afresh the peace, joy and love of the Risen Lord and renew our commitment to follow Him. May our personal encounter with the Risen Christ deepen our faith and walk with God, individually and as one CHS family.

May the Holy Spirit stir us out of our comfort zone and empower each one of us to reach out to our pre-believing friends and loved ones with the saving grace of our Lord Jesus.

NEW HERE? WELCOME!

A warm welcome to those who are new to the church. Please introduce yourself to the pastors or ushers and leave us your contact. Let us know if you need us to pray for you or you would like more information on the various ministries and community life.

Collect

5th Sunday of Resurrection Sunday

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ have overcome death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: grant that, as by your grace going before us you put into our minds good desires, so by your continual help we may bring them to good effect; through Jesus Christ our risen Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

For Meditation and/or Memory

SALVATION IN CHRIST ALONE

And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you.
_John 14:16-17_

Weekly Devotions: LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER 7

What Love Does God Expect of Us?

Some of us may interpret Jesus' command to love one another as simply to be friendly & kind to fellow believers, to serve in the church, and to give generously of our financial resources. God is not calling us to be philanthropists or to be charitable in the church community. Even those in the world know how to be charitable and to give generously. The standard of love God expects of His people is much higher.

There are 4 different Greek words for love. Storge: affection, for example, love between parent & child or between siblings. Phileo: friendship, between those like-minded or with common interests. Eros: sexual or sensual love between man and woman. Agape: self-giving, unconditional love that comes out of grace.

In the NT, the most commonly used word for love, occurring 116X, is agape / agapao. In the Upper Room discourse Jesus used these two words 30X to refer to the love expected of believers for one another. Jesus did not command us to have storge fond affection or to be phileo friendly but to extend agape love to one another. Agape love is an act of the will; it does not depend on how we feel about the other person. Agape love, sacrificial and unconditional love, is what Jesus has shown to us who are unworthy, undeserving sinners.

Read 1 Cor. 13

Paul reminded the Christians in Corinth that love is superior to spiritual manifestations. Exercising spiritual gifts or serving in the church is meaningless, if it is not done out of love. Love is not only superior; it is the only thing that will stand and last at the end.

Michael Green in his reflection on this passage said; "When the day of all our earthly gifts is over, when all prophecy has found its fulfillment, when tongues are taken up in the song of the redeemed, when we know even as we are known, when faith is swallowed up in sight, and hope is fulfilled in utter possession by the beloved, then love remains... We shall not in the end be judged by our gifts or our learning, but by our love, by our likeness to Christ."

Questions to ponder

1. In 1 Cor. 13: 1-8, Paul urged the believers at Corinth to aim toward love above all else. Why is it important for us to serve out of love?
2. What did Paul say are the attributes of love (4-8a)? Which of these attributes are you strong in and which are you lacking? Decide on 3 things you can do to build your relationships with others in the church with agape love?

The servant-leader is concerned with and committed to developing the potential, well-being and faith of others. He / she leads out of a servant heart, seeking to serve God whole-heartedly by leading His people to become what God intends them to be. He / she shapes the thinking, values and conduct of those being led through relationships of trust and respect.

The course looks at the three vital attributes of a servant-leader that are essential to form and develop such relationships of trust and respect between the leader and those he/she is leading.

The course is for those involved in people's ministries in CHS; those in chaplaincy work, ministries to children, youth, young adults and seniors, DGs, PCC, outreach, family life, etc."
