Becoming a Great Commission Church

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matt 28:18-20, ESV)

Our direction for CHS in 2022 will be toward "Becoming a Great Commission Church" and to enable each believer to be a Great Commission disciple.

Weekly Devotions: LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER 11

Love is to Carry One Another's Burden

Some years back, I hurt my small toe and was limping for two weeks because of the pain. This little accident helped me understand what Paul meant in 1 Cor. 12: 26a that; "If one member suffers, all suffer together..." (1 Cor. 12: 26a).

Likewise, when our brothers and sisters in Christ are struggling, we cannot turn our back on them but to come alongside to 'bear with one another's burden' (Gal. 6: 2). As one family of God, we need to be concerned and to look out for one another. The opposite of love is not hate but indifference. When we are indifferent to the struggles of people, there is no love in us.

We express agape love through mutual support and encouragement. True love is to put the interests and welfare of others before our own. Carrying each other's burden can be as simple as coming alongside and offer a listening ear or to be a friend to those who are facing life's crisis. It can also be to help others grow spiritually. To bear one another's burden is following after Jesus' example; He carried our sorrows and the punishment for our sin when He went to the cross.

Read 1 Cor. 12: 12-26

Paul referred to the Church as the body to highlight the variety and unity in the body. Everyone, regardless of gifting, talents, status, intellect, gender, has a critical role to play in the church. Paul exhorted that in the body of Christ, everyone is important and we need one another for the overall health of the body. Mutual care, support & interdependence are intrinsic to the body (24). Just as no single part of the body can survive on its own outside the body, no believer can survive spiritually unless he / she is an active member in the body of Christ.

Questions to ponder

1. Every part of the human body, including the appendix, has an important function. In the body of Christ, what is your role / function and how are we in the church dependent on one another?
2. What lessons was Paul teaching about the Church in verses 14-22? Do you see some of these problems Paul highlighted in your church?
3. How can you and / or your cell / fellowship group support and bear the burden of others in the church? Share a time when you have been blessed by the support and care given to you by other members in the church.

The Call & Heart of a Servant Leader

Date: 16th, 23rd, 30th July (3 Sat, 10.30am – 12.30pm)

By: Revd. Peter Chen

Venue: MPH

Register @ <https://forms.office.com/r/sjtDu6fGE4>

The servant-leader is concerned with and committed to developing the potential, well-being and faith of others. He / she leads out of a servant heart, seeking to serve God whole-heartedly by leading His people to become what God intends them to be. He / she shapes the thinking, values and conduct of those being led through relationships of trust and respect.

The course looks at the three vital attributes of a servant-leader that are essential to form and develop such relationships of trust and respect between the leader and those he/she is leading.

The course is for those involved in people's ministries in CHS; those in chaplaincy work, ministries to children, youth, young adults and seniors, DGs, PCC, outreach, family life, etc.

God desires and invites us to a lifelong, intimate relationship with Him. Our response to this invitation to walk in intimacy with Him requires us to learn the habits of creating sacred space for Him and to commune with Him meaningfully.

The course teaches participants to learn and to practice the various spiritual disciplines of listening, scripture meditation, silence, solitude, journaling, etc. Time will be given for personal reflection and contemplation.

We pray each participant will come away from the course desiring more of God, motivated to continually create space for Him and to enjoy communing with Him daily.

As people belonging to God and citizens of God's Kingdom, we are called to be the light that shines for those who live in the darkness of sin. We are expected to be different from the world, different from the irreligious and also the religious.

There is no salvation without transformation and sanctification. Our speech, thoughts, conduct and actions must reflect who God is; His holiness, righteousness and love. In the Sermon on the Mount (Matt 5-7), Jesus clearly sets out the value-system, the ethical standard expected of all believers.

The course will look at the purpose of Jesus' teachings and the relevance of His moral expectations in this time and age. It will examine the distinction between true and false spirituality, Jesus' warnings against self-righteousness, the need to cultivate persevering trust in God, the secret of Christian joy and how to defeat temptation.
