Becoming a Great Commission Church

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matt 28:18-20, ESV)

God, who as at this time taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Even on the male and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit.

Weekly Devotions: LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER 10

Do not Distance Yourself from Those in Pain

When I was diagnosed with cancer, I noticed that some church friends were uncomfortable when they ran into me in church. They would either look away when they passed me or avoid having conversation with me. Never once did they ask; "How are you?" or "Are you okay?" Their distancing made me feel like I have caught an infectious disease or have committed a terrible sin and should be ostracized. But praise God, other members in the church, some of whom I did not know, came alongside to encourage, to pray for me and to offer practical help. Their love expressed in practical acts of kindness and being with me in the difficult time lifted up my spirit and assured me of God's love.

To love one another requires us to come alongside those who are facing life's crisis to encourage & pray for them and to offer practical help. We should not distance ourselves or avoid the person and making him / her feel rejected and even judged.

Read Luke 10: 25-37

Jesus used the parable of the Good Samaritan to answer the question posed to Him as to who deserves to go to heaven. In the parable, Jesus highlighted there are two responses to those in distress; we respond either with concern or with indifference, which is the opposite of love. Indifference or lack of concern for the sufferings of others indicates there is no love in our heart.

Three people walked past the wounded man, presumably a Jew. The first two, a priest and a Levite, both educated in the Law & seen as spiritually mature, avoided the wounded man. Why? Too busy, too troublesome? The Samaritan, traditionally hated by the Jews, was the one who showed concern and stopped to help the man.

Someone said religion without mercy & compassion is meaningless. God is pleased with the person who cares, not the person who is religious. Even unbelievers know how to be kind to those in need, so can we, who are recipients of God's love, be indifferent to fellow believers who are in pain?

Questions to ponder

1. Share a time when someone had gone out of his way to help you. Suggest some ways we can show fellow believers in distress that we care.
2. How did the priest, the Levite and the Samaritan respond to the man who was robbed and beaten (31-35)? Why are we sometimes like the priest and the Levite in our response to people in trouble? How can you be the Samaritan to someone in church who is struggling with life's problem?

The servant-leader is concerned with and committed to developing the potential, well-being and faith of others. He / she leads out of a servant heart, seeking to serve God whole-heartedly by leading His people to become what God intends them to be. He / she shapes the thinking, values and conduct of those being led through relationships of trust and respect.

The course looks at the three vital attributes of a servant-leader that are essential to form and develop such relationships of trust and respect between the leader and those he/she is leading.

The course is for those involved in people's ministries in CHS; those in chaplaincy work, ministries to children, youth, young adults and seniors, DGs, PCC, outreach, family life, etc.

God desires and invites us to a lifelong, intimate relationship with Him. Our response to this invitation to walk in intimacy with Him requires us to learn the habits of creating sacred space for Him and to commune with Him meaningfully.

The course teaches participants to learn and to practice the various spiritual disciplines of listening, scripture meditation, silence, solitude, journaling, etc. Time will be given for personal reflection and contemplation.

We pray each participant will come away from the course desiring more of God, motivated to continually create space for Him and to enjoy communing with Him daily.

As people belonging to God and citizens of God's Kingdom, we are called to be the light that shines for those who live in the darkness of sin. We are expected to be different from the world, different from the irreligious and also the religious.

There is no salvation without transformation and sanctification. Our speech, thoughts, conduct and actions must reflect who God is; His holiness, righteousness and love. In the Sermon on the Mount (Matt 5-7), Jesus clearly sets out the value-system, the ethical standard expected of all believers.

The course will look at the purpose of Jesus' teachings and the relevance of His moral expectations in this time and age. It will examine the distinction between true and false spirituality, Jesus' warnings against self-righteousness, the need to cultivate persevering trust in God, the secret of Christian joy and how to defeat temptation.
