Becoming a Great Commission Church

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matt 28:18-20, ESV)

Our direction for CHS in 2022 will be toward "Becoming a Great Commission Church" and to enable each believer to be a Great Commission disciple.

Collect

First Sunday after Trinity

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

For Meditation and/or Memory

THE SPIRIT'S EMPOWERING PRESENCE

For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God.

Weekly Devotions: LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER 12

Serve One Another with Agape Love

Agape love is proactive, taking the initiative to do things that will benefit others. It involves giving of ourselves, our time, our resources and our energy to serve one another out of a humble, sincere, self-giving and loving heart.

In the New Testament the word diakoneo means to serve. For the early believers serving God is to serve one another. This includes looking after the practical needs of others (Acts 6: 2), sharing the gospel (Eph 3: 7), raising funds for those in need (2 Cor. 9: 1, 12-15), exercising their spiritual gifts to edify one another (Eph 4: 11-12) or helping others grow in faith. Every ministry is important and they were exhorted not to rank some as more superior to others and to look down on those 'less honorable'.

It is not what we do that is important but what motivates us. Do we serve out of love for God and for one another or out of self-interests? We are called not only to serve one another but to serve with the right attitudes; humility, self-sacrifice and grace.

Read Matt 20: 17-28

Jesus' disciples were competing amongst themselves to be at the top of the rank or to be the righthand man of the Master. Jesus told them that greatness in the Kingdom of God is different from how the world defines greatness. In God's Kingdom, greatness is linked to servant-hood; the one who humbles himself to serve others would be considered great (26-27). Why? Because He Himself "...the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many" (28).

The distinctive features of Jesus' ministry are humility, compassion, grace and self-sacrifice for the benefit of unworthy sinners. We are to follow His example in serving others, serving out of a heart of humility and grace, ready also to sacrifice our own needs for others.

Questions to ponder

1. What are some reasons people refrain from serving in the church? How can the church help those who may be ready to serve but unsure of their ability overcome their reservation?
2. How does the world define greatness and who is considered great in God's eyes (25-27)? What are two things you can do that God will see you as 'great' in your ministry to others?
3. For whom and for what did Jesus sacrifice His life? What would it mean for you to serve like Jesus out of grace, humility, compassion and sacrifice?

The Call & Heart of a Servant Leader

Date: 16th, 23rd, 30th July (3 Sat, 10.30am – 12.30pm)

By: Revd. Peter Chen

Venue: MPH

Register @ <https://forms.office.com/r/sjtDu6fGE4>

The servant-leader is concerned with and committed to developing the potential, well-being and faith of others. He / she leads out of a servant heart, seeking to serve God whole-heartedly by leading His people to become what God intends them to be. He / she shapes the thinking, values and conduct of those being led through relationships of trust and respect.

The course looks at the three vital attributes of a servant-leader that are essential to form and develop such relationships of trust and respect between the leader and those he/she is leading.

The course is for those involved in people's ministries in CHS; those in chaplaincy work, ministries to children, youth, young adults and seniors, DGs, PCC, outreach, family life, etc.

Intimacy with God: Creating Space for God, Communing with Him

Dates: 13th, 20th, 27th Aug (3 Sat, 10.30-12.30pm)

By: Pastor Stanley Tay

Venue: MPH

Register @ <https://forms.office.com/r/8SS7LbQFxd>

God desires and invites us to a lifelong, intimate relationship with Him. Our response to this invitation to walk in intimacy with Him requires us to learn the habits of creating sacred space for Him and to commune with Him meaningfully.

The course teaches participants to learn and to practice the various spiritual disciplines of listening, scripture meditation, silence, solitude, journaling, etc. Time will be given for personal reflection and contemplation.

We pray each participant will come away from the course desiring more of God, motivated to continually create space for Him and to enjoy communing with Him daily.

We live in a world in need of Christ. Many are yearning for a sense of security because of the pandemic, global unrest, possibility of recession, job loss, etc. Only in Christ can we find joy, peace & hope. Only God can protect us. But do we know who God is? Why and how can we put our total trust in Him? Building Faith Foundations (BFF) emphasizes the distinctiveness of our Christian faith; what we believe and why we believe what we believe. It looks at:

- What God is saying to us through the Bible.
- God's Sovereignty, Power and Love.
- The Uniqueness of Christ and what He had done for us.
- The Gift & Empowering of the Holy Spirit.

Who It Is For?

The course is for those preparing for baptism and confirmation and also those transferring membership from other churches. It is opened to enquirers who want to know more about Christianity as well as CHS members who want to strengthen their faith foundation.

As people belonging to God and citizens of God's Kingdom, we are called to be the light that shines for those who live in the darkness of sin. We are expected to be different from the world, different from the irreligious and also the religious.

There is no salvation without transformation and sanctification. Our speech, thoughts, conduct and actions must reflect who God is; His holiness, righteousness and love. In the Sermon on the Mount (Matt 5-7), Jesus clearly sets out the value-system, the ethical standard expected of all believers.

The course will look at the purpose of Jesus' teachings and the relevance of His moral expectations in this time and age. It will examine the distinction between true and false spirituality, Jesus' warnings against self-righteousness, the need to cultivate persevering trust in God, the secret of Christian joy and how to defeat temptation.

Sermon Topic: The Holy Spirit and Mental Health

Speaker: Rev Dr Tan Siang-Yang

This message on The Holy Spirit and Mental Health will focus on how the Holy Spirit can help us be mentally healthy by producing His fruit of love, joy, peace, forbearance (patience), kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (Gal. 5:22,23) and filling us with God's love and hope (Rom.5:5)."

About the Speaker:

Rev. Dr. Tan Siang-Yang (PhD, McGill University) is Senior Professor of Clinical Psychology at Fuller Theological Seminary and Senior Pastor Emeritus of First Evangelical Church Glendale in Southern California. He has written many articles and books, including Lay Counselling (revised edition), Rest, Disciplines of the Holy Spirit, Full Service, Coping with Depression, Shepherding God's People, and Counselling and Psychotherapy: A Christian Perspective (2nd edition). He is a licensed psychologist and Fellow of the American Psychological Association. He is currently serving as the Spiritual Director of the American Association of Christian Counsellors.

Are all religions the same? In a plural, multi-religious society, it is critical that we know the distinctiveness of our Christian faith; what we believe and why we believe what we believe. Without a clear understanding of what we believe, who we are and what we are called to be, we cannot fully appreciate the marvellous work of God for our salvation. We would also fail to live out our calling as God's people to a world in need of Christ.

Building Faith Foundations challenges and teaches believers on what it means to live out our salvation according to the will & purpose of God for our lives. It covers the basic tenets of Christianity and what it means to follow Jesus. Topics include:

- The Authority of Scriptures.
- The Sovereignty of God.
- The Uniqueness of Christ – Incarnation; Crucifixion, Resurrection, Ascension & 2nd Coming.
- The Gift & Empowering of the Holy Spirit: The Person & Baptism of the Spirit; the Fruit of His Indwelling.
- Our Calling to Follow Jesus, to Whole-Hearted Worship, to Witness and what it means to be a People Belonging to God.
- Our Anglican Heritage.

Who It Is For?

The course is for those preparing for baptism and confirmation and also those transferring membership from other churches. It is opened to enquirers who want to find out more about Christianity as well as CHS members who want to strengthen their faith foundation.
