Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matt 28:18-20, ESV)*

Third Sunday after Trinity

Almighty God, you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father: give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do

Weekly Devotions: LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER 14

Pray For One Another

The church is not a place where we visit once a week to worship. It is the family of God and as part of the family we need to be involved in the lives of others; to support, to care, to share and, most of all, to intercede for one another.

We often pray for church events and activities and neglect praying for the people in our midst. It is important that we should pray for those amongst us who are in distress, for the pastors, staff, lay leadership team and those serving in the various ministries. Let's not forget also to pray for the children, the youth, the seniors, for families, the domestic maids, the foreign workers, etc. who are in our midst.

Arthur Pink, a theologian, said, "The measure of our love for others is determined by the frequency and earnestness of our prayers for them." Give time to listen to God and to one another; pray also for each other. The apostle Paul challenged the Thessalonian believers that they should "pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" (1 Thess. 5: 17-18).

Read John 17:6-26

On the night of Jesus' arrest, He was more concerned for His disciples than for Himself. After giving them His mandate to love one another, Jesus prayed for Himself, for His disciples (9) and also all who would believe in Him (20). He prayed that God would protect them from the evil one and watch over them (11-12, 15). He also prayed for their sanctification and transformation through God's word (17, 19) as well as for love and unity amongst them (21-23). He prayed that through their oneness many would come to know the Father and His saving grace through the Son. He prayed also that His followers would have His joy (13) and be with Him and see His glory (24). Our Lord continues to intercede for us in heaven and we too should not forget or neglect interceding for one another.

Questions to ponder

1. Which of Jesus' prayer requests do you need most for yourself? Why? What & who do you pray for most of the time? List 3 changes you would make to your prayer list using Jesus' intercession as a model.
2. What are the 3 needs Jesus repeatedly asked His Father on our behalf in verses 11, 21-23; and verses 11-12, 15 and verses 17 & 19? Do you think these requests are relevant and needed for the Church today?
3. What and who in the church would you commit to pray for daily and 'without ceasing'?

The Call & Heart of a Servant Leader

Date: 16th, 23rd, 30th July (3 Sat, 10.30am – 12.30pm)

By: Revd. Peter Chen

Venue: MPH

Register @ <https://forms.office.com/r/sjtDu6fGE4>

The servant-leader is concerned with and committed to developing the potential, well-being and faith of others. He / she leads out of a servant heart, seeking to serve God whole-heartedly by leading His people to become what God intends them to be. He / she shapes the thinking, values and conduct of those being led through relationships of trust and respect.

The course looks at the three vital attributes of a servant-leader that are essential to form and develop such relationships of trust and respect between the leader and those he/she is leading.

The course is for those involved in people's ministries in CHS; those in chaplaincy work, ministries to children, youth, young adults and seniors, DGs, PCC, outreach, family life, etc.

Intimacy with God: Creating Space for God, Communing with Him

By: Pastor Stanley Tay

God desires and invites us to a lifelong, intimate relationship with Him. Our response to this invitation to walk in intimacy with Him requires us to learn the habits of creating sacred space for Him and to commune with Him meaningfully.

The course teaches participants to learn and to practice the various spiritual disciplines of listening, scripture meditation, silence, solitude, journaling, etc. Time will be given for personal reflection and contemplation.

We pray each participant will come away from the course desiring more of God, motivated to continually create space for Him and to enjoy communing with Him daily.

We live in a world in need of Christ. Many are yearning for a sense of security because of the pandemic, global unrest, possibility of recession, job loss, etc. Only in Christ can we find joy, peace & hope. Only God can protect us. But do we know who God is? Why and how can we put our total trust in Him? Building Faith Foundations (BFF) emphasizes the distinctiveness of our Christian faith; what we believe and why we believe what we believe. It looks at:

- What God is saying to us through the Bible.
- God's Sovereignty, Power and Love.
- The Uniqueness of Christ and what He had done for us.
- The Gift & Empowering of the Holy Spirit.

Who It Is For?

The course is for those preparing for baptism and confirmation and also those transferring membership from other churches. It is opened to enquirers who want to know more about Christianity as well as CHS members who want to strengthen their faith foundation.

Using biblical principles and practical strategies, the Hand-in-Hand Dating course aims to help the dating couple relate to each other in a healthy and godly way as well as to evaluate their relationship, whether to discontinue it or to develop ways to strengthen it before moving on to the next stage.

It hopes to enable each couple to better understand themselves and the other - why they are dating, what attracts them to each other, what expectations they have of each other, how they could better relate to each other, etc. The couple would be given opportunities to explore current and potential issues in their relationship because of personality differences as well as other factors. They will also have a platform to reflect, discuss and resolve these issues.

In a nutshell, the Hand-in-Hand Dating course seeks to provide biblical principles and practical tools for our dating youths & young adults to develop healthy, godly relationships as well as to equip them to share these principles and strategies to help other couples.
