Weekly Devotions: TO LOVE GOD IS TO OBEY HIM 1

Is Jesus Your Savior but Not Your Lord?

Many 21st century believers may actually see the call to obedience as offensive. Phillip Keller in 'The High Cost of Holiness' lamented that in the West; "The individual's private conduct is said to be almost sacrosanct. He or she is permitted to do even the most despicable things without accountability to others. All sorts of legal mechanisms are put in place to protect the so-called civil liberties of the individual, even though his or her conduct is most unethical or even immoral and destructive to others.... The whole idea that Christians are to be a people under divine authority, subject implicitly to Christ's control and obedient to His commandments repels most people both inside the church and outside of it. The cost of giving Christ the sacred sacrifice of our total, whole-hearted obedience is too prohibitive!"

Perhaps that is why we hardly hear sermons on obedience these days. There are even preachers who promise their members that they can remain as they are; there is no need for repentance and transformation. Just believe in Jesus and they will be saved and God will bless them abundantly. These preachers are promulgating Christianity without the cross, that we can acknowledge Jesus as our Savior but not our Lord! Is this what the bible teaches?

Read Luke 6: 46

Among the many titles given to Jesus, the title 'Lord' or Kurios is most common. It occurs over 700 times in the New Testament. In the Greek Old Testament, Kurios occurs over 9,000 times to refer to Yahweh, the Creator God of heaven and earth.

The Greek word Kurios means 'Master' referring to someone who owns or who has power and authority over another, e.g., a slave. Paul said in Romans 10: 9-10 that we are saved when we confess with our mouth and believe in our heart that Jesus is Lord.

What does it mean then for you and me to see Jesus as our Lord? What does it mean for us to live under His Lordship? What does Jesus expect of those who call Him 'Lord'?

Questions to ponder

1. Why do we have reservations about obeying or submitting to another person? Do you have any reservation about obeying Jesus' teachings? If 'yes' why?
2. What does Jesus expect of those who call Him 'Lord'? How is Jesus the Lord of your life?

By: Pastor Stanley Tay

God desires and invites us to a lifelong, intimate relationship with Him. Our response to this invitation to walk in intimacy with Him requires us to learn the habits of creating sacred space for Him and to commune with Him meaningfully.

The course teaches participants to learn and to practice the various spiritual disciplines of listening, scripture meditation, silence, solitude, journaling, etc. Time will be given for personal reflection and contemplation.

We pray each participant will come away from the course desiring more of God, motivated to continually create space for Him and to enjoy communing with Him daily.

Using biblical principles and practical strategies, the Hand-in-Hand Dating course aims to help the dating couple relate to each other in a healthy and godly way as well as to evaluate their relationship, whether to discontinue it or to develop ways to strengthen it before moving on to the next stage.

It hopes to enable each couple to better understand themselves and the other - why they are dating, what attracts them to each other, what expectations they have of each other, how they could better relate to each other, etc. The couple would be given opportunities to explore current and potential issues in their relationship because of personality differences as well as other factors. They will also have a platform to reflect, discuss and resolve these issues.

In a nutshell, the Hand-in-Hand Dating course seeks to provide biblical principles and practical tools for our dating youths & young adults to develop healthy, godly relationships as well as to equip them to share these principles and strategies to help other couples.

HABAKKUK: A Journey from Confusion to Faith
13th, 20th & 27th Oct (3 Thurs, 8pm – 9.30pm)
Revd Dr Timothy Chong

The sessions will be via Zoom
Register @ <https://forms.office.com/r/VzZUMjPqkq>

The book of Habakkuk is a prophecy about the coming invasion of Babylon and how God will judge the people of Judah for her sins. It captures the prophet's conversations with God and how in these conversations, Habakkuk's confusion was transformed into faith by the end of the book. Habakkuk's journey of faith becomes our journey of faith as the apostle Paul tells us in Romans 1:16-17.

This course will examine the nature of prophethood in Israel, Habakkuk's conversations with God and Paul's understanding of saving faith in Romans 1:16-17.
